Deposit charges

A deposit must be received to confirm any booking. The deposit due is half of the minimum charge of the activity booked. Bookings will be held for a maximum of 14 days until the date will be re-opened for another group to book. The deposit can only be returned if another group replaces the booking. Please make cheques payable to 'NBAC Attentive'.

Instructors

NBAC Attentive does not have it's own resident instructors. We do have access to a large number of instructors from across the Corps, and may be able to source one if given enough notice. We publish dates each year where we can guarantee instructors will be available.

You do not need to use our instructors – you can use your own. However, all group leaders must provide a copy of their relevant qualification(s) for the centre's records, and have attended an induction session with the centre's senior instructor.

Group Leaders

All bookings must appoint a group leader. This might be a member of the NBAC Attentive staff if applicable. The group leader must ensure the centre is used responsibly, and left in an appropriate condition. A checklist for departure can be found by the main door. Your unit must still appoint an activity leader for your cadets, and they are required to complete a daily registration form on arrival if NBAC Attentive staff are leading the group.

To make a booking

Complete and return a booking application available from www.ntc.org.uk/attentive, or talk to one of our staff. Bookings cannot be confirmed until all three parts of your application are received: booking application, form of indemnity, and deposit.
